3. Statewide rules pertaining to the rule-based right of criminal defendants to a prompt trial continue to be suspended. Any postponement caused by the judicial emergency shall be considered a court delay and shall constitute excludable time for purposes of the application of Pa.R.Crim.P. No. 600.

4. Civil jury trials scheduled through December 2020 are continued generally. Civil nonjury trials may be scheduled with permission of the President Judge.

5. From the date of this Order through October 31, 2020, all Court business shall be conducted subject to protocols and procedures that limit, as much as possible, all in-person access and proceedings as reasonably modified by the presiding judge in the exercise of that judge's discretion provided all safety measures herein mentioned are employed. Statewide rules that restrict, directly or indirectly, the use of advanced communication technology are hereby suspended.

6. Proceedings requiring in-person appearances may be scheduled at the discretion of the presiding judge and shall be conducted in a manner that employs all safety measures consistent with the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Pennsylvania Department of Health (DOH) guidelines.

7. Court filings shall be made by means other than in-person delivery whenever possible. Statewide rules impeding court filings by means other than in-person delivery are hereby suspended.

8. Detailed protocols for the handling of matters in each division of the Court of Common Pleas will be provided on the Court's Website.

9. Court users and the public are requested to conduct any business they have in the Courthouse by telephone, mail, email, or any other advanced communication technology whenever possible to avoid in-person contact with Courthouse personnel.

10. This Administrative Order applies only to those courts, offices, and departments under the jurisdiction of the President Judge, and is not intended to prohibit access to other court-related offices in the Lancaster County Courthouse by those members of the public who are unable to conduct their official business by means other than in person.
